

Hold it...

Before you order your next supply of Form No. 109, Security Check Officer List -- better contact your Building Supply Officer to see if he has the latest revision of this form. If so, you'll need fewer copies. The Daily Check List has been revised so that one sheet can now be used for a whole month.

A fellow worker suggested this time and money saving revision and received a cash award. How about you? Have you an idea that should be sent to the Suggestion Awards Committee?
